

SPECIAL EARTH DAY SCREENING

THE CARTER CENTER GREEN TEAM

cordially invites you to celebrate EARTH DAY with a documentary screening and Q&A with the filmmakers

Monday, April 22

12 noon

The Carter Center Cyprus Room

This brown bag event is open to community members, but you must RSVP to greenteam@cartercenter.org to attend.

ABOUT THE EVENT

If you work in Nigeria, are concerned about food security or climate change, or simply want to learn more about these topics, we encourage you to join Carter Center staff on Monday, April 22 at noon in the Cyprus Room for an exclusive screening of Swallow (37 minutes), followed by a Q&A with the filmmakers. Don't forget to bring your lunch!

ABOUT THE DOCUMENTARY

Swallow addresses challenges brought on in part by Nigeria's changing climate, inadequate infrastructure, and agricultural practices. The documentary features inspiring stories and explores potential solutions to Nigeria's food security challenge, with contributions from Ms. Amina Mohammed, Deputy Secretary-General, United Nations, and Dr. Akinwunmi Adesina, President of the African Development Bank.

ABOUT THE FILMMAKERS

Jacqueline Farris has served as Director General of the Yar'Adua Foundation since its inception in 1998 and is a member of the Board of Trustees. She is responsible for the coordination of Foundation programs and projects and administration of the Yar'Adua Centre.

Amara Nwankpa is Director of the Yar'Adua Foundation's Public Policy Initiative, established to encourage the formulation and implementation of sustainable public policy with a focus on climate advocacy, credible elections and governance and accountability.

SHEHU MUSA YAR'ADUA FOUNDATION

The Yar'Adua Foundation was established by the friends, family, and associates of Shehu Yar'Adua to inspire Nigeria's future generations with his legacy of service. Our mission is to promote national unity, good governance, and social justice by creating platforms to engage citizens, policy makers, and stakeholders in national conversations that foster an inclusive and prosperous Nigeria.
